

KIM NOBLE | CAMPO

LULLABY FOR SCAVENGERS

After Kim Noble Will Die and You're Not Alone, Kim Noble is currently working on a new solo performance within his trilogy on loneliness and friendship. In Lullaby for Scavengers a fox and a dead yet singing squirrel are Kim Noble's new accomplices in his search for ways of survival. How do you fit into a world that doesn't necessarily want you? Who will help us navigate the rest of our time here? What have we learnt about our being human to pass on to the next generation? And how do you cope when there are rodents in your ceiling?

This new creation will be released through a series of try-out performances taking place in the course of autumn and winter 2021

“And although much of this unique human-animal-love-collage of small films and live performance may seem disturbing at first glance, there’s a dreamily tender and completely serious utopia behind it: what if it does work after all, together?”

Q&A with Kim Noble and Squirrel, from their show in Hamburg.

Kim: Have you ever been to Hamburg?

Squirrel: No.

Kim: What are you most looking forward to about going to Hamburg?

Squirrel: I'm not looking forward to it at all.

Kim: Oh sorry to hear that... are you nervous about the show...

Squirrel: A bit. Do they have trees in Hamburg?

Kim: I don't know. Perhaps we should have included it in the technical rider...

Squirrel: What? You didn't ask for a tree for me.

Kim: No... I asked for a video switcher and a decent microphone and a big projector but that's about it.

Squirrel: You selfish wanker.

Kim Noble is a professional cleaner and Performance Artist. He is based in London. He charges 10 Euro/hour for his cleaning services. If you'd like to book him to clean your toilet, whilst he is in Hamburg then email him on Kim_noble@hotmail.com.

Squirrel is a Squirrel Based in London. She is a grey Squirrel.

Kim Noble is an award winning comedic performance and video artist. His multi-disciplined approach has led him to work across theatre, TV, film, art and comedy.

Kim's work uses a provocative and humorous style to expose the human condition: notions of death, sexuality, gender and religion are picked at with dry comedic use of tragedy meshed with absurdity. He has a girl's name and no longer smells of wee.

He was one half of Perrier Award-winning, BAFTA-nominated experimental art-comedy duo Noble and Silver.
